What’s NEW for 2019

EQAO has implemented the following changes to better align the assessments with regular classroom environments:

- Access to virtual manipulatives or math applications is permitted during the assessment, as long as these tools are not instructional. (See pages 4 and 10.)

- Teachers and principals can refer to a table for guidance on determining what materials are considered non-instructional and what are instructional (Dos and Don’ts—For Classroom Materials Displayed During the Assessment). (See page 12.)

- Access to headphones for calming white noise or music is permitted if they are used by the student during regular classroom assessments. (See pages 4 and 10.)
The Assessments at a Glance

Grade 3 and Grade 6 students do not have to complete the assessments at the same time.

The mathematics sections can be administered at any time during the assessments.

The sections in each student booklet must be completed in the sequence in which they are presented. Each section must be completed in one continuous session. (A session may include water, stretch and washroom breaks.)

Participation

All Grade 3 and Grade 6 students, including English language learners and students with special education needs, enrolled at the school must be accounted for and are expected to participate in the assessments. English language learners and students with special education needs may be exempted if they meet the criteria for an exemption outlined in this guide.

Professional Responsibilities for the Administration of the Assessments of Reading, Writing and Mathematics, Primary and Junior Divisions

EQAO relies on principals and teachers in the development, administration, scoring and reporting of the Assessments of Reading, Writing and Mathematics, Primary and Junior Divisions.

Principals are responsible for ensuring that

- they, the teachers, support staff and other personnel (e.g., scribes) preparing for, participating in or administering the assessments have read the current school year’s Administration and Accommodation Guide and board direction/policy.

- all teachers, support staff and other personnel (e.g., scribes and prompters) participating in, preparing for and administering the assessments have received training this year and follow this year’s Administration and Accommodation Guide.

- all Grade 3 and Grade 6 students enrolled at the school are accounted for, including those who are English language learners as defined by English Language Learners: ESL and ELD Programs and Services: Policies and Procedures for Ontario Elementary and Secondary Schools, Kindergarten to Grade 12 (2007) and those with special education needs as defined by Special Education in Ontario, Kindergarten to Grade 12: Policy and Resource Guide (2017), even if they are to be exempted.

- any student receiving an accommodation has an Individual Education Plan (IEP) that outlines the accommodations that are necessary for and consistent with regular classroom assessment practices. Any accommodation offered must be consistent with the permitted accommodations in this year’s Administration and Accommodation Guide. The student must normally receive the accommodation for all forms of assessment, including summative assessments.

- complete and appropriate assessment materials are ordered for each student, using the EQAO Student Data Collection (SDC) system. If necessary, additional materials should be requested after receipt of the initial shipment.

- all information provided to EQAO is complete and accurate for ALL students.

- all materials necessary for the preparation of the assessments are provided to the teachers, support staff and other personnel.

- all assessment materials are kept secure prior to, during and after the administration.

- the locations and conditions for writing the assessments allow each student to work independently of every other student as outlined in this year’s Administration and Accommodation Guide.

- there is no deviation from the EQAO guidelines and instructions without explicit written direction from the relevant supervisory officer and EQAO’s Chief Assessment Officer.

- any breach or suspected breach of security is reported to EQAO.

Principals and teachers are responsible for ensuring the fair and consistent administration of the assessments as outlined in this year’s Administration and Accommodation Guide.

Before the Administration

These procedures must be followed:

- All materials ordered must be received and checked (with attention to material type) at the school.

- Student assessment material packages must not be opened prior to the administration of the first section of the assessment.

- Only staff members administering the assessment may have access to assessment materials.

- Teachers administering the assessment may receive the student assessment materials no earlier than the morning of the day the administration begins.

- Scribes and prompters may have access to the assessment materials only during the administration session.

- Staff preparing assessment materials for assistive technologies may have access to the materials prior to the start of the administration.

- Assessment materials must not be copied in any way for any reason.

During and After the Administration

- Only teachers, support staff and other personnel administering the assessment may have access to assessment materials.
- Scribes and prompters may have access to the assessment materials only during the administration sessions.
- Unused assessment packages (e.g., for absent students) must not be opened for any reason, except with EQAO's permission.
- All classroom materials containing reading, writing or mathematics content of an instructional nature must be removed from view or covered.
- Only those individuals directly involved in the administration and assessment activities (e.g., scribes and prompters) may enter the testing room.
- Students must be supervised at all times during the administration.
- No one may explain, define or provide examples of reading vocabulary or writing or mathematics terminology to students, including those with accommodations.
- Nothing may be said or done to influence student responses, including, but not limited to, actions such as drawing a student's attention to an unanswered question.
- Once the assessment materials have been opened (i.e., prior to, during or after the assessment), no one may use information from the assessment to provide instruction on any concept or question being tested.
- Each section of the assessment must be completed in one continuous session. A session may include water, stretch and washroom breaks.
- A session may not be interrupted by recess or lunch or by any other school programming.
- Student assessment materials must not be removed from the classrooms during the administration except to place them in a secure location.
- No one may read, review or correct student work during or after the administration. This includes darkening, rewriting, editing, erasing or altering student work in any way.
- At no point during or after the assessment may anything be said or done to encourage students to alter or revise their responses.
- After a section of the assessment has been administered, booklets must not be returned to students for further review, correction or completion.
- At the end of each section, all assessment materials must be collected and stored in a secure place without review.
- Student responses must not be copied in any way for any reason.
- Once all assessment booklets are completed, they must be bundled and returned immediately to the principal for secure storage, without review, prior to the return of materials to EQAO.
- All assessment materials, used or unused, must be returned to EQAO.
- Any circumstances that may affect the scoring of student work (e.g., package ID number issues) or may have affected the validity of any student performance (e.g., a discussion between two students during the assessment) must be documented and reported to EQAO on the Issues Envelope.

Classroom materials that do not provide explicit instruction of knowledge and skills required for reading, writing or mathematics can be displayed.

Some examples:
- graphic organizer templates that include only titles or headings but do not contain explicit guidance on how to complete the graphic organizer (e.g., sentence starters)
- word walls, math walls, terms or labelled images (without definitions, examples or explanations)
- EQAO “Classroom Tips” or similar generic tips
- general classroom resources (e.g., classroom rules, learning goals, success criteria, levels of achievement chart)

Classroom materials that provide explicit instruction of knowledge and skills required for reading, writing or mathematics (e.g., materials that define, explain or provide examples that help a student answer a reading, writing or mathematics question) must be removed from view or covered.

Some examples:
- completed graphic organizers (e.g., sentence starters filled in with examples)
- word walls, math walls or images with definitions, examples or explanations
- samples of student work or solutions to questions related to reading, writing or mathematics, including past EQAO assessment questions with responses
- anchor charts that outline the steps or processes to answer reading or writing questions or solve mathematical problems

Refer to the Guidelines for Classroom Displays for examples of non-instructional and instructional materials.

5. How often do you write the following (using paper or a computer) when you are not at school?
   - a) Stories
   - b) Journal entries
   - c) E-mail, text or instant messages
   - d) Letters

6. How often do you and a parent, a guardian or another adult who lives with you do the following?
   - a) We talk about the activities I do in school.
   - b) We talk about the reading and writing work I do in school.
   - c) We talk about the mathematics work I do in school.
   - d) We read together.
   - e) We look at my school agenda.
   - f) We use a computer together.

7. How often do you do the following when you are not at school?
   - a) I participate in art, music or drama activities.
   - b) I participate in after-school clubs.
   - c) I participate in sports or other physical activities.

8. On a school day, how many TV programs do you normally watch?
   - a) Before school
   - b) After school

9. How many schools did you attend before this one?
   - Only this school
   - 1 other school
   - 2 other schools
   - 3 other schools
   - 4 other schools or more

10. Please answer these questions.
    - a) Which languages do you speak at home?
    - b) In which languages do people speak to you at home?

Thank you for completing this questionnaire.

How to Resolve Issues Through the SDC System or Issues Envelopes

1 | Teachers: After the administration, provide your principal with a detailed written explanation of any errors or situations that did not adhere to EQAO’s guidelines.

2 | Principal: Review the written explanation of issues and determine an appropriate resolution workflow.

Common Issues and Appropriate Resolution Workflow

Issues that DO NOT require EQAO’s attention

Examples:

A | Student 1 did not use a scribe despite having the accommodation.
B | Students 2 and 3 accidentally received each other’s package for all of the administration.

Issues that DO require EQAO’s attention

Examples:

C | Student 4’s responses did not save to the computer.
D | Students 5 and 6 accidentally used each other’s Mathematics Booklets only.

SDC System

Update the SDC system.

Ensure the packages related to issues resolved through the SDC system are returned in the regular tote boxes.

DO NOT include these packages in the Issues Envelopes. No written explanation for these packages is required.

Issues Envelopes

Collect all of the affected students’ booklets.

Write the last six digits of the student’s package ID in the boxes on the Issues Envelope, and provide a detailed explanation of the issues next to each listed package.

Include all booklets for each listed package ID in the Issues Envelope.
Accommodations and Exemptions

Support for Students with Special Education Needs and English Language Learners

All accommodations outlined in this guide must be adhered to whether the student is taking an assessment in a paper or an electronic format. No instructional materials that facilitate responses to questions can be used. EQAO relies on educators to administer the assessments in accordance with EQAO guidelines and to ensure the security and validity of the assessments.

Role of the Principal

The principal is responsible for

- making decisions about student participation;
- ensuring that all accommodations and exemptions are provided;
- documenting the relevant information in the Student Data Collection (SDC) system according to the instructions in this guide;
- sending an information letter to parents or guardians outlining approved accommodations and/or
- sending an information letter to parents or guardians informing them of the exemption.

Sample information administration letters are available on the secure section of the EQAO Web site, www.eqao.com.

Definitions

Modifications: changes to the content of the assessment. These are not permitted, because they affect the validity and reliability of the assessment.

Accommodations: changes in the way the assessment is administered or the way in which a student with special education needs responds to its components. These do not alter the content of the assessment nor affect validity or reliability.

Exemptions: decisions for students who are unable to participate in the assessment even with accommodations.

Scribe: an individual who supports the accommodations the student receives on a regular basis for all forms of assessment by recording student verbatim responses. Scribes must be an adult and must not be relatives of the students they are assisting.

Prompter: an individual who draws the student’s attention back to the assessment. Prompts can be a verbal signal (e.g., a word or phrase to redirect the student’s attention) or a non verbal signal (e.g., a tap on the desk). Promoters cannot clarify, explain or translate any part of the test or draw the student’s attention to a specific part of the assessment.

Resources

This guide is based on the following Ministry of Education documents, available at www.edu.gov.on.ca:

- Ontario Schools, Kindergarten to Grade 12: Policy and Program Requirements (2016)
- Supporting English Language Learners: A Practical Guide for Ontario Educators, Grades 1 to 8 (2008)
Permitted Accommodations for Students with Special Education Needs

THE STUDENT
- has an Individual Education Plan (IEP) that outlines accommodations that are necessary for and consistent with regular classroom practices and
- receives these accommodations for all forms of assessment.

MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT ACCOMMODATIONS
- based on the accommodations outlined in this guide and those identified on the student’s IEP;
- so they are consistent with regular classroom practice, including assessments;
- prior to the assessment;
- for each student individually and
- in consultation with the student and parents or guardians and with the appropriate teaching staff.

Presentation Format (format in which student receives assessment)

AVAILABLE FOR ALL COMPONENTS (READING, WRITING AND MATHEMATICS)

- Sign language or oral interpreter
  - Interpreters translate the English text of the assessment into American Sign Language (ASL) and the student responses from ASL into written English.
  - An oral interpreter mouths words so the student can lip-read.

- Unified English Braille (UEB) for both language and mathematics
  - Available: contracted or uncontracted.
  - Students may have access to both the Braille and the MP3 audio versions.

- Large-print booklets
  - White paper

- Coloured-paper versions (regular or large-print)
  - Available: blue, green or yellow.

- MP3 audio (includes descriptive text) plus tactiles and regular- or large-print booklets
  - Only for students with a visual impairment.
  - Available for download three days prior to the beginning of the administration period.
  - All MP3 audio files must be deleted by the date specified on the front page of this guide.

Presentation Format (format in which student receives assessment) continued

READING, WRITING AND MATHEMATICS

Assistive technology formats

- The following assistive technology formats are available for reading and writing: Kurzweil 3000 (version 12), Kurzweil 1000 (version 12); HTML, PDF, Word optimized for text-to-speech software [(doc), e.g., Word Q or Read and Write Gold], Word (.doc) optimized for Premier, WORD (unformatted). The assistive technology formats are available for mathematics are Word and PDF.

- Board or school contacts are able to download the assistive technology versions three days prior to the assessment to format them for distribution to their own users, providing they do not alter content or item order. A set of print booklets will also be sent to the school for students receiving these versions.

- A version of the assessment optimized for the Read&Write Google Chrome extension for reading, writing and mathematics will be made available on the school board’s secure EQAO Web site at 9:00 a.m. three days prior to the beginning of the administration period. School boards will be responsible for sharing the files with schools that have requested Read&Write for Google Chrome.

- For ease of use, the audio, Braille and assistive-technology versions will not be presented as a separate Reading Booklet and a separate Answer Booklet for language. Although students will receive printed booklets, a PDF that will match the audio, Braille and assistive-technology versions will be available for download from the secure site at 9:00 a.m. three days prior to the beginning of the administration period.

Response Format (format in which student responds)

AVAILABLE FOR ALL COMPONENTS (READING, WRITING AND MATHEMATICS)

Use of a computer or word processor or assistive devices and technology (See “How to Return Computer Responses to EQAO”)

Note: Preferred font size and recommended length of response may be posted for students.

- Type the last 12 digits of the package ID on the top of each page of the computer printout.

- Label each response with both the question number and the section number.

- Recommended font: 14 point Times Roman or Times New Roman; Paper: letter-sized with 3 cm margins
  - Short-writing tasks: five lines for Grade 3 and 10 for Grade 6.
  - Long-writing task: 10 lines for Grade 3 and 20 for Grade 6.
  - Open-response reading: three lines for Grades 3 and 6.

- Permitted: speech synthesizer, Brailler, speech-to-text software or augmentative or alternative communications systems provided by the board or the school.

- All responses will need to be stapled to the inside front cover of the appropriate Answer Booklet (mathematics or language) and returned in the Special Versions envelope.

Audio recording of student responses

- A verbatim transcription of the audio recording must be submitted.

- Ensure that the last 12 digits of the package ID are on the top of each page of the transcription and on the audio recording.

Note

- Ensure that computers have sufficient memory to accommodate the electronic versions in various formats, that students’ work is saved frequently and that it can be printed. EQAO recommends printing student work after each session.

Documentation

- Record the accommodations in the SDC system.
- A copy of the information letter from the principal to the parents or guardians outlining the approved accommodations or exemptions must be kept on file at the school.
- Keep all other documentation on file.

Return of Materials

- Computer responses, responses in assistive technology (speech-to-text software) formats and audio version transcriptions on loose sheets must be stapled to the inside front cover of the appropriate Answer Booklet (mathematics or language). These booklets and the audio recording must be placed in the Special Versions Envelope. (See “How to Return Computer Responses to EQAO” in this guide.)
- Retain the electronic version of the student’s work until the date indicated on the cover of this guide.
- Place all student materials that contain an issue that require EQAO’s attention for resolution in the Issues Envelope, and document the issues on the outside of the envelope. (See “How to Resolve Issues Through the SDC System or Issues Envelopes” in this guide.)
How to Return Computer Responses to EQAO

1. Before the test, type the last 12 digits of the package ID at the top of each page.

2. Ensure that all text is legible. Times New Roman or Times Roman (14 pt.) is recommended.

3. Print all student responses. Ensure pages are numbered and in order (e.g., 1, 2 of 10). Identify the section and question number (e.g., Section A, #5) for each response.

4. Staple the pages to the inside front cover of the mathematics or language Answer Booklet.

5. Include only Answer Booklets containing responses typed on a computer or responses written on the PDF in the special versions envelope. Include blank booklets or the Reading Booklet with all other materials in the return tote box.
English Language Learners and the Assessments is an English language learner as defined by English Language Learners: ESL and ELD Programs and Services: Policies and Procedures for Ontario Elementary and Secondary Schools, Kindergarten to Grade 12 (2007).

THE STUDENT

MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT ENGLISH-LANGUAGE LEARNERS

- prior to the assessment;
- for each student individually and
- in consultation with the student and parents or guardians, and with the appropriate teaching staff.

Section 2.9.1 of English Language Learners states: “English language learners should participate in the Grade 3 and Grade 6 provincial assessments in reading, writing and mathematics…when they have acquired the level of proficiency in English required for success.”

Further reference:
- Supporting English Language Learners: A Practical Guide for Ontario Educators, Grades 1 to 8 (2008)

Additional Information

- English language learners in the early stages or steps of English-language acquisition are eligible for permitted accommodations. It is assumed that these students require accommodations for classroom assessments throughout the school year. Record the accommodations in the SDC system.

- English language learners who have special education needs and an IEP are entitled to accommodations listed under “Permitted Accommodations for Students with Special Education Needs” in this guide. Record the accommodations in the SDC system.

- Verbatim reading of instructions and/or questions for writing and mathematics is not considered an accommodation.

Return of Materials

- Place all student materials that contain an issue that require EQAO’s attention for resolution in the Issues Envelope and document the issue on the outside of the envelope. (See “How to Resolve Issues Through the SDC System or Issues Envelopes” in this guide.)

Documentation

- A copy of the information letter from the principal to the parents or guardians outlining the approved accommodations must be kept on file at the school.

- Keep all other documentation on file.
Exemptions

THE STUDENT
is unable to participate in part or all of the assessment even with accommodations.

A student must be exempted from

- reading, if the student has to be read to by a teacher or another adult, and
- mathematics, if mathematics terms have to be defined.

MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT EXEMPTION
- prior to the assessment;
- for each student individually;
- in consultation with the student, parents or guardians and appropriate teaching staff, and with the consent of the parents or guardians.

Additional Information

- If a student is exempt from reading, the teacher must highlight for the student which portions to omit and which to complete in the Language Answer Booklet.

- If the parents or guardians want their child to write the assessment, the student must be allowed to write.

- Student materials (booklets, etc.) will not be shipped if students are exempted from ALL components of the assessments. Alternative learning activities must be provided by the school, possibly in a different environment.

Documentation

- Record student information and exemption in the SDC system.

- An information letter from the principal to the parents or guardians informing of the exemption or a letter from the parents or guardians requesting exemption (exemptions must meet EQAO’s requirements; the final decision rests with the principal) must be kept on file at the school.

- Keep all other documentation on file.
Students with Special Circumstances

is unable to participate without accommodations, due to special circumstances.

- New to School: Student does not have an IEP, due to a recent transfer into the school from another jurisdiction. There is documentation to show that accommodations are necessary.
- Temporary Condition: Student has a temporary condition that hinders/impedes them from writing or using a keyboard (e.g., a hand injury) and would not normally require accommodations.

MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

- prior to the assessment;
- for each student individually;
- in consultation with the student and parents or guardians and with the appropriate teaching staff and
- having referred to the permitted accommodations in this guide.

Documentation

- Record the accommodations in the SDC system.
- A copy of the information letter from the principal to the parents or guardians outlining the special circumstances and approved accommodations must be kept on file at the school.
