

Assessments of Reading, Writing and Mathematics,
Primary and Junior Divisions

A Handy Guide to Permitted Items

Are you about to complete EQAO’s Assessments of Reading, Writing and Mathematics, Primary and Junior Divisions? Here’s a list of common permitted items you could use in addition to the built-in supports and tools of our e-assessment platform.

For all components (reading, writing and mathematics)

For mathematics only

- A calculator
- The EQAO Formula Sheet (junior-division assessment only)

For writing only

(permitted only for open-response questions)

- A dictionary
- A thesaurus

Now, what should you not use?

The list below includes some of the items and resources that are not allowed during EQAO’s Assessments of Reading, Writing and Mathematics, Primary and Junior Divisions.

- Examples of questions
- Instructional resources (e.g., textbooks or notes)
- Your own formula sheet

For the extended list of authorized and unauthorized items and resources, please refer to the User Guide and the Resources section on our website.

*Please note that some additional resources might be provided by the school.
